SHEEP PRODUCTION IN ALBERTA

The value of sheep on the farms and ranches in Alberta, which is now the third province in Canada in point of sheep population, is nearing the $5,000,000 mark, according to a bulletin "Sheep Production in Alberta" which has just been issued by the Department of Extension, University of Alberta. This booklet prepared by Prof. J.P. Sackville and Prof. J.E. Bowstead is essentially practical and deals with the place of sheep on the farm, the various breeds and the care and management of the flock in detail. A valuable section dealing with sheep diseases prepared by Dr. P.R. Talbot, Provincial Veterinarian, has been included. Copies are available for free distribution to farmers and others interested in the sheep industry.

ALBERTA CATTLE FOR JAPAN

Twenty head of choice registered Holstein cattle selected from a number of Alberta heads were loaded at Calgary and Edmonton on Thursday last for shipment to Vancouver and thence by the S.S. Malville of the American Line to Yokohama for delivery to the Japanese government. It is expected that these cattle which will form the basis of improved dairy herds in Japan will be a forerunner of further similar shipments from this province to the Orient.

A survey of current publications places the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal in the lead for variety and quality of reading. Always recognized as a steady guide and counsellor to the farmer the survey proclaims it almost as equally popular in urban homes.

About Ourselves

Scanning the pages of a little farm machinery magazine the other day, the attention of the writer of this column was drawn to a short article headed "About Ourselves," and, like everybody else, being interested in himself, he proceeded to read it. It appealed to him as so human, so absolutely true, so worth-while, that he decided to pass it on to the readers of this paper and thus give still wider circulation to a message which all would do well to heed. Here is the article:

"We all want the things that we think will make us happy. We want to own things, to know about things, to go places, to do things, to work out ideas, to win the esteem and respect and affection of folks.

The bigger our wants, the more chances we have of being worth while. The person who cares for nothing amounts to nothing. We begin wanting the day we are born. When we quit wanting, we'll be dead. If we don't want anything, we are hopeless.

If we don't think about our wants, we let little desires crowd out the really big, worth while desires. "I didn't think," is the excuse most often given for acting foolishly, recklessly, dangerously, selfishly. Unnecessary accidents and needless griefs follow. Thinking clears the way for restful action. If we don't think, we are reckless and selfish.

In order to make our feelings and thoughts count, we must do something. The more times we get good thoughts backed by strong feelings and do nothing, the worse off we are. Doing things tests our thinking and our feeling—enables us to do clearer thinking and work out happier things the next time. If we won't work, we are helpless.

A slight change in attitude may make a great change in life; the light of a new idea may point the way to the successful working out of a problem; even when things seem wrong and we can't see clearly, starting to do something may clear the way.

What we feel, what we think, and what we do make us what we are. That's the message. Read it over again. Then, once again, read the last lines: "What we feel, what we think, and what we do, we are."

Now read the first sentence again: "We all want the things that we think will make us happy."

This article is about ourselves. It is a sort of heart to heart talk, a kind of personal stock-taking at the beginning of a new year. So, let us ask ourselves some pointed questions.

Granted we want to be happy, were we ever happy while thinking mean, uncharitable thoughts about somebody else? Rather, have not our happier moods been those when kindly thoughts of others occupied our minds?

We will find happiness in the esteem, respect and affection of others. There are few of us but desire to be popular. But can we command these things, or do we deserve them, if, on our part, we are entertaining feelings of contempt and hatred for those around us?

We find joy in doing things, but can we expect to accomplish much if we are arrogant in our attitude towards others, if we insist upon always having our own way, if we are intolerant of the views and opinions and convictions of those with whom we are called upon to work?

A person who is always suspicious of others soon becomes the object of general suspicion. Thinking mean thoughts, cultivating uncharitable feelings, doing unworthy things, may or may not hurt those against whom they are directed, but they most assuredly do hurt the one who indulges in them. They affect his or her whole character. Persisted in they will even leave their indelible mark upon the countenance with the result that the ugly inner life will be like an open book that all others may read—and shun.

The happiness so much desired is not to be found that way; rather it is the death of all happiness.

Remember: "What we feel, what we think, and what we do we are."

Never Told These

Inquiring Guests Add To Wonders Of Jasper Park

"The Equator," said the youngster, writing his examinations, "is a menagerie lion running around the earth." Schoolboy howlers are always rich in humor. But the howlers are not always made by school-boys.

Last summer a lady came up to the transportation desk in Jasper Park Lodge to inquire about the motor trip to Mount Edith Cavell and the Angel Glacier. She was very anxious to miss nothing of the wonders of the mountains. "When," she asked, "does the Glacier spout?"

Then there was the lady who thought that the Lodge would be very pretty when it was finished, when the walls were plastered and kalsomined. That the great peeled logs, well chinked and cunningly fitted together, were meant to be as they were, never entered her consciousness. She knew nothing of the beauty of mountain architecture.

The prize, however, goes to the lady who was discussing the wild life of the park with one of the wardens. "The goats and the sheep are the same species, are they not?" she asked innocently. "Which are the males?"

"Oh, the goats, madam" said the warden, without batting an eyelash.

To Check Flu-Grip

Fight the Germs with Vapors Before They Can Get a Start

Treat All Colds Promptly But Be Careful Not to Disturb the Digestion With Too Much Dosing

While Flu is so prevalent everyone should take precautions to prevent its further spread. Flu is generally accompanied by a headache, burning eyeballs, and aching joints. But it begins so many times with just an ordinary cold.

Too often, the colds are neglected until they have lowered the vitality and permitted the lurking germs of influenza, or pneumonia to "get a foothold."

The only safe plan is to attack a cold at the very start. A hot bath, a laxative, and a vigorous application of Vicks VapoRub on the throat and chest at bedtime, will usually break up a cold overnight.

External Treatment Best

For hours after Vicks is applied, its ingredients, time tested remedies, such as camphor, menthol, eucalyptus, thyme and turpentine, are vaporized by the warmth of the body, and inhaled right to the inflamed air passages. At the same time, the ointment acts through the skin like an old-fashioned poultice, "drawing out" tightness and pain, and helping the vapors to break up the congestion.

Avoid Upsetting Stomach

This simple external treatment cannot disturb your digestion as too much "dosing" is so apt to do. This is doubly important when "flu" is around, for your stomach, as well as your respiratory organs, must be kept in good condition in order to keep your body resistance at its highest level.

For this reason, too, mothers prefer Vicks for children. It can be used freely and often, even on the youngest child, with no fear of upsetting a delicate stomach.

To Help Ward Off the Flu

When influenza colds are prevalent, you can often prevent infection by snuffing a little Vicks well up the nostrils every night and morning, or before exposure to crowds.

Ross, lieutenant-governor of the province, and leaders in every section of the industrial, political and religious life of the city.

The Family Physician. The good doctor is always worth his fee. But it is not always possible to get a doctor just when you want him. In such cases, common sense suggests the use of reliable home remedies, such as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is wonderfully effective in easing inflammatory pains and healing cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. The presence of this remedy in the family medicine chest saves many a fee.

Worth Finding Out

Dr. F. G. Banting is now experimenting with "royal jelly," the food which the bees feed to develop the queen bee. Some apiarists think that this stuff, which is said to prolong the life of the queen bee for several years, may have some merit as a food for human beings. It is worth trying to find out just what it is composed of.

NEW PICTORIAL STAMP ISSUES NOW ON SALE

Ottawa.—Canada's new pictorial stamp issue is completed and the four larger denominations are now on sale. The stamps are stated by post office officials to be regarded by philatelists as the finest produced in any country.

Each section of Canada is represented. The one-dollar stamp carries a picture of the parliament buildings and is significant of the central part of the country. For the maritimes the 50-cent denomination shows the schooner, Bluenose, winning the international fishermen's race. The Quebec bridge appears on the 12-cent stamp. The prairies are typified in the 20-cent stamp by a picture of a wheat field. The ten cent stamp bears a representation of a mountain in British Columbia with totem poles on the border.

The lower denominations carry the king's head. All numerals are larger than in previous issues. The stamps are stated to be among the finest examples of the engraver's art. Under the microscope the windows in the parliament buildings may be counted and figures of horses in the British Columbia stamp, smaller than a pin head, are replete with detail.

This Means Of Transportation a Success During Winter

The Pas, Man.—For the first time in the history of Northern Manitoba, automobiles are being used this winter as a means of transportation over the trails and lakes between The Pas and Flin Flon, a distance of 400 miles.

Jim Reid, a well-known mining man, started out for Flin Flon via Sturgeon Landing and word was received here that he had reached the landing. Two other parties started out on the same trip a little later.

Automobiles are running daily between Cranberry Portage and Cold Lake as well as aeroplanes, tractors, and snowmobiles.

Broadcasting Debate Between Party Leaders Is Also Proposed

London, Eng.—Radio will play a big part in the political speech making of the coming general election campaign. Addresses by Hon. Neville Chamberlain, at Liverpool, on January 18, and Premier Stanley Baldwin, at Newcastle, on January 24, will both be relayed throughout the country. A proposal to broadcast a debate between the leaders of the three parties on the de-rating bill has been accepted by the Labor party, and it is expected the Conservatives and Liberals will fall in line.

Harvest Help Influx

Hon. Peter Heenan Explains Why Harvesters Were Brought From Britain

Ottawa, Ont.—A total of 75,000 harvesters were needed in western Canada harvest fields last year and as no assurance was forthcoming from the eastern provinces that they would supply 44,000 to add to the west's available 31,000, the federal government was obliged to appeal to Great Britain for men and as a result the miner-harvester scheme was brought about. This was the explanation of the influx of British harvesters last year to help garner western Canada's wheat crop, given by Hon. Peter Heenan to the labor delegation which presented its legislation program to the federal cabinet.

The federal government had to protect itself, Mr. Heenan explained, and as the eastern provinces could not assure the government of 44,000 harvesters, it was decided to bring ten thousand Britishers to help in the harvest fields.

The estimated requirement of 75,000 was made by a committee which investigated the harvesting conditions.

German Report Shows Gold Reserve Increase

Reichsbank Vaults Contain Twice As Much As Before War

Berlin.—Five years after the stabilization of the German Reichsmark the vaults of the Reichsbank contain more than twice as much gold as before the world war.

At the beginning of December the Reichsbank reserves showed a total of 2,650,000,000 marks worth of gold, while on December 31, 1923, the Reichsbank had only the equivalent of 1,170,000,000 marks in gold.

Since 1924 the gold of the Reichsbank show a constant increase, 1928 being a record year with acquisitions of gold amounting to 787,000,000 marks until the end of the first week of December.

During the years 1924, 1925, 1926 and 1927, the Reichsbank has bought up gold amounting to 293,000,000, 448,000,000, 377,000,000 and 31,000,000 marks respectively.

National Resources Question

No Statement By Premier King In Respect To Province Of Alberta

Ottawa.—Premier Mackenzie King has not yet issued any statement with respect to the return of the natural resources to the province of Alberta, and it seems doubtful whether he will discuss the matter until definite agreement is reached.

When Premier Brownlee was last in Ottawa, it was understood that a tentative arrangement had been arrived at, but that it would be discussed further in correspondence between the two governments.

A despatch from Edmonton outlining what is said to be a new offer by the Dominion indicates that this correspondence is proceeding. The prime minister, however, has made no announcement as yet.

Japanese Stage Revolt

Assistance Of Infantry Required By Police To Control Peasants

Tokio.—Three companies of regular infantry were rushed to Namoru, a village near Fifu, when Japan's smouldering rural unrest flared up momentarily.

Two thousand peasants marched in a body on the local government offices and 300 police were unable to control them. Fighting ensued with casualties on both sides and the troops were called.

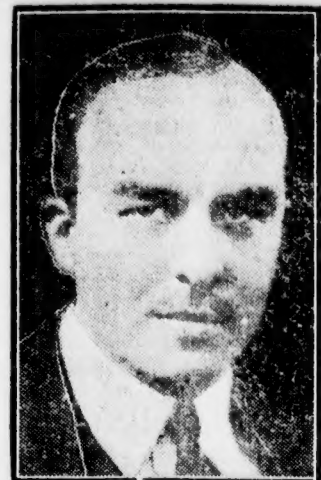

The peasants were protesting against a government riparian project which they claim would flood hundreds of acres of paddy (rice) fields.

It was officially reported that the peasants were still gathering in the neighborhood districts and arming with bamboo spears.

Earthquake In Turkey

Constantinople.—A violent earthquake accompanied by a terrifying subterranean roar occurred at Angora recently. No accident to life or property was reported.

PREDICTS POLITICAL CRISIS

Arthur Beverley Baxter, the Canadian who is managing editor of the Daily Express, London, who has "spilled the beans," as he himself cheerfully puts it, by announcing that Beaverbrook is prepared to go to the mat with the die-hard political parties in Britain in order to effect an empire-wide tariff. Baxter, who made the announcement during his present visit in Canada, predicts that Beaverbrook's action will result in one of the greatest political crises in British history.

Ship Huskies To Byrd

Dogs Required For Pole Exploration Have Left Vancouver

Vancouver.—When the R. M. S. Niagara sailed from Vancouver, January 9, for New Zealand and Australian ports she carried 15 young husky dogs for Commander Byrd's Antarctic expedition. The dogs have been housed at the Grouse Mountain Kennels here.

The dogs must reach Dunedin, N.Z., by February 7, in time to be forwarded by the steamer Elinor Eolting for the Antarctic base on the edge of the great ice barrier. E. J. Farr, agent for the White Pass and Yukon Railways, has completed all arrangements for the shipment in response to a recent request by Commander Byrd, it is stated.

McLean To Receive Eight Thousand Yearly

New Post Carries Salary Of a Deputy Minister

Ottawa, Ont.—Hon. J. D. McLean, former premier of British Columbia, and newly appointed farm loan commissioner, is in conference with departmental officials here, and beginning the preliminary work of organizing the rural credits system.

Mr. McLean will be paid $8,000 per year, the salary of a deputy minister. Two other members of a farm loan board who will serve part time, will shortly be appointed.

Visualizes Conditions Ideal

Henry Ford Says Farming Needs To Be Completely Revolutionized

New York.—A world in which no one smokes or discusses prohibition, where farmers no longer farm and housekeepers no longer cook, and machines take care of the drudgery is outlined by Henry Ford in his book, "My Philosophy of Industry," just published.

"The great problem in the home today," the Detroit capitalist points out, "is too much drudgery. We shall soon find a way to do much of the cooking outside and deliver it in a hot and appetizing condition at meal time at no greater cost."

The old farm is likewise due for a big change, according to Mr. Ford.

"Farming needs to be completely revolutionized," he says. "Large corporations, whose sole business it will be to perform the operations of plowing, planting, cultivating and harvesting, will supersede the individual farmer, or groups of farmers will combine to perform their work in a wholesale manner. This is the proper way to do it and the only one in which economic freedom can be won."

Test Saskatchewan Seed

Seed Testing Laboratory Is Established At Saskatoon

Saskatoon.—Saskatchewan seeds will in future be tested in the laboratory of the Dominion Seed Branch of the federal department of agriculture which is being put into operation in rooms occupied by this department here, according to a statement given out recently.

Preparations for opening this laboratory and offices have been under way since December. In all about 3,000 feet of floor space will be occupied.

Nelson Young, of Winnipeg, acting district inspector for the whole district of Saskatchewan will be in charge. Dr. F. T. Wahlen, chief seed analyst of Ottawa, head of all laboratory work in Canada, is here in connection with the opening of the laboratory.

New Airplanes Ordered

Five Are Especially Equipped For Patrols In Alberta

Ottawa.—Fourteen new Moth planes were ordered by the Department of National Defence for distribution among flying clubs in Eastern Canada and for forest patrol work out of High River, Alta., air station. The order involves more than $60,000.

The order calls for five machines especially equipped with radio sets, added fuel carrying capacity and special navigation instruments for the difficult patrols in Alberta where it is necessary for pilots to make long flights at high altitude.

Dog Days of Quebec

There was great consternation in the canine world a few days ago when it was decreed that no dogs in harness must roam the streets of Quebec. There was a rumour that the great classic, the Eastern International Dog Sled Derby, was to be cancelled, that the Chateau team was to be banished from the terrace—all sorts of horrible rumours; but as afterwards developed, the edict was not directed against any other than the small boy who, with a dog he may, or may not, be able to control, dodges under the horses' hoofs and car wheels, thus endangering his own life and others, including that of his dog.

So once again "Mountie," veteran Mounted Police dog, will, as leader of the Chateau Frontenac team, wag his tail as the winter tourist pats his head. And the Dog Derby is on February 21, 22, 23. One hundred and twenty miles in three laps, with, perhaps, men whose names were famous last year—St. Goddard, Seppala, Chevette and Dupuis.

MAY RESTRICT MIGRANTS FROM CERTAIN AREAS

Ottawa.—It is reported here that Hon. Robt. Forke, Minister of Immigration, is planning to restrict immigration from Central and Southeastern Europe. The information is supposed to have been conveyed in telegrams from the minister, who is in the west, to Ottawa.

W. J. Egan, deputy minister, stated that he had received no such telegraphic communication from Mr. Forke.

The report suggested that the government would decline to renew the conventional agreement of the railways, which expires in October, 1930. This agreement enables the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways to bring agricultural and domestic workers from these countries to Canada if they are suitable from a physical and mental standpoint. This agreement is subject to cancellation at any time on one year's notice, or can be suspended by order of the minister of labor if labor conditions here warrant it.

Boost Automobile Insurance

Report States Rates Throughout Canada Are To Be Increased

Toronto.—Automobile insurance rates throughout Canada are to be increased sharply—as much as 50 per cent. for legal liability and as much as 25 per cent. for collision, it was announced here recently, following a meeting of the Canadian Automobile Insurance Underwriters' Association. The increase will be graded to differentiate between urban and rural areas.

It was stated that the ground upon which the increased rates would be put into effect were that business under present conditions was unprofitable and that Canadian rates are lower than those prevailing in the United States.

It was announced that after a survey of present rates at the meeting, it was decided that "adjustments were imperative."

Science Aids Farming

Soon Be Able To Develop Wheat That Will Resist Both Rust and Frost

Ottawa.—Within the next few years Canadian experts will have developed scientific means to resist both frost and rust in the great new Peace River fields, Hon. W. R. Motherwell, member of agriculture, said when addressing the first day's session of the eastern Canada Fruit and Vegetable Jobbers' Association here.

"Canada is a great next year country," said the minister. He meant, he explained, that no matter what conditions of one time were Canadian people had a habit of pinning their faith upon the future and working wholeheartedly for the prosperity of tomorrow.

Expect Increased Migration

Liverpool, Eng. Authorities, both British and Canadian, expect heavily increased migration of British farm settlers to Canada in the spring. Negotiations are under way between the two governments it is understood, looking to the movement of 6,000 trained and partially trained men for farm work in April.

A change in telephone numbers has drawn attention to the train inquiry office in the great Windsor Street Station of the Canadian Pa-girls who are on duty there handle each on an average of 200 calls an hour, and as many as 300 an hour during rush times. They carry most of the information in their heads and seldom have to refer to a time-table. They are asked queer questions, sometimes. Recently someone asked, "When does the afternoon begin," and the old posse turned up. "What time does

Dr. Knechtel, a farmer residing about four miles east of Souris,
Manitoba, has about 6,000 bushels of Reward wheat which he is going to ship out all over Western Canada in two-bushel lots as soon as the list of addresses arrives from Ottawa. for the project is under the supervision of the Dominion Government. As is pretty generally known, Reward wheat matures about a week earlier than Marquis and for this reason can be grown further north. This early ripening means roughly, that a new strip of country 75 by 1,000 miles is made available for wheat growing.

Who Does Your Printing?

All business houses need more or less printed matter, all of which is within the possibilities of the local printer. Yet how prone many are to pass up the home printer and let the orders go to city offices which have no interest whatever in rural communities except to get printing orders and the cash to pay for them. Business men, remember that the home paper is constantly promoting the interests of the home community and you owe it to yourself and your local paper to back up these efforts by at least having your printed matter done locally.

Progress In Aviation

Over 300 Airplanes Now Operating In Canada

On January 1, 1929, there were 333 aeroplanes in operation, or more than three times the total a year ago, according to a survey of Canada made by the bureau of statistics.

There are at present 44 air harbors in Canada, as compared with 25 last year. Licenses held by commercial pilots at the first of the year numbered 190, nearly five times the number on the comparative date. Activity in the north has been largely responsible for the rapid progress in aviation.

Newspaper Suffers Loss By Fire

Plant Of the Turtleford Recorder Is Prey To Flames

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the post office and newspaper plant at Turtleford, Sask., recently. The building and printing plant were owned by C. R. McIntosh, M.P., and were covered by insurance. Post office fixtures, owned by A. Vinge, postmaster and editor of the "Turtleford Record," were also insured. Owing to strenuous efforts on the part of volunteer fire fighters the blaze was kept from spreading. No fire had been made in the building on the day of the outbreak, according to Mr. Vinge.

The first presentation was made to Patrolman Arthur Underman, and Gerald McCauley, who on Jan. 3rd were forced to kill a negro when he resisted arrest.

The Sunday evening Bible Class had been enlarged to full strength, and two of the latest recruits were discussing Bible topics.

INFLUENZA'S VICTIMS

Left Weak, Miserable and a Prey To Disease In Many Forms

One of the most treacherous diseases afflicting the people of Canada during the winter months is influenza. It almost invariably ends with a complication of troubles. Its victims suffer with alternate fevers and chills, headaches and backaches. It leaves them an easy prey to bronchitis and pneumonia. Indeed, the deadly after effects of influenza may leave the victim a chronic invalid. You can avoid influenza entirely by keeping the blood rich and red by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If you have not done this and the disease attacks you, you can banish its deadly after effects through the use of this great blood-building, nerve-restoring tonic.

Here is proof of the power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills over this trouble. Mr. F. H. McMullen, Belleville, Ont., says:—"Some years ago, following a severe attack of influenza, I was left in such a weak condition that my friends thought I would not get better. I developed nervous indigestion, and my blood got thin and watery. In this weakened condition I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and these did what other medicine had failed to do—brought me back to health and strength. I can honestly say I think them the best blood builder and nerve tonic known, and I shall always praise them."

You can get the pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using it I purchased two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and in five weeks she was completely healed."

To break a cold harmlessly and in a hurry try an Aspirin tablet. And for headache. The action of Aspirin is very efficient, too, in cases of neuralgia, neuritis, even rheumatism and lumbago! And there's no after effect; doctors give Aspirin to children—often infants. Whenever there's pain, think of Aspirin. The genuine Aspirin has Bayer on the box and on every tablet. All druggists, with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer Manufacture. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assure the public against imitations, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trademark.

CHRIST THE SAVIOUR

Golden Text: "And thou shalt call His name Jesus; for it is He that shall save His people from their sins."—Matthew 1:21.

Lesson: Luke 2:1, 30-32; 15:3-7; John 3:14-17; 10:9-11, 14-16, 27, 28; Acts 3:1-18; Romans 5:1-11; Philippians 2:5-11; 2 Timothy 1:9, 10.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 53:4-9.

Explanations and Comments

The Value Of a Repentant Sinner. Luke 15:3-7. To the Pharisees and scribes who criticized Jesus for receiving sinners and eating with them, Jesus said: "Is there a man among you who, if he possessed a hundred sheep and found one missing, would not leave the ninety-nine in the pasture lands and search for the lost sheep until he found it?" By the word translated "wilderness" is meant the uninhabited lands which were the pasture lands.

"The sheep may shiver with terror and cold when it no longer sees the flock, no longer hears the guiding voice of the shepherd, but it is only the shepherd who knows all that is involved in its position, only the shepherd knows the risks. We sometimes speak of man's infinite loss through sin, and I do not know that we can exaggerate it; but, after all, we do not realize it, even in a measure, until we view from the side of God the poverty and deformity of the Christless soul."—Thomas Stewart.

When the shepherd finds the lost sheep, he puts it across his shoulders (the easiest way in which to carry it), and returns rejoicing. So great is his joy that he must have others share it, and he calls together his friends and neighbors and bids them rejoice with him.

Grief can take care of itself, says Mark Twain, but to get the full value of a joy we must have some one with whom to share it.

If you would be so careful and tender of one lost sheep, how much more careful and tender must the Good Shepherd be of the lost sheep of Israel? "I say unto you," said Jesus, "that even as in the case of this human shepherd there will be joy with God and His angels over one sinner that repents, more than over the ninety and nine righteous persons (such as the Pharisees regarded themselves, Luke 18:9), who (as they think) need no repentance." Dr. W. L. Watkinson points out three facts in this verse: (1) the significance of the individual—over one sinner; (2) the importance of the individual lies in his moral life—one sinner; (3) the most important event in the individual life is the restoring of the lapsed soul to God—one sinner that repenteth.

Corns cannot exist when Holloway's Corn Remover is applied to them, because it goes to the root and kills the growth.

Miller's Worm Powders attack worms in the stomach and intestines at once, and no worm can come in contact with them and live. They also correct the unhealthy conditions in the digestive organs that invite and encourage worms, setting up reactions that are most beneficial to the growth of the child. They have attested their power in hundreds of cases and at all times are thoroughly trustworthy.

When your Children Cry for It

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is fretful. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops soon bring contentment. No harm done, for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctors' word for that! It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it's in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved—or colic pains—or other suffering. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle, unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.

"Where's the bunk-house?" asked Blackie.

"We don't call them bunk-houses any more, we have dormitories," corrected Gillis as he nudged Donald slyly.

"A what?" questioned the puzzled Blackie.

"Dormitories," repeated Gillis.

Blackie glowered at his boss. "What are you runnin', a ladies' seminary?" he questioned sarcastically.

"And another thing, you don't need your blankets. Company furnishes 'em," informed Gillis.

"Well, I'll tell you one thing right now," declared 'Crazy' Jack, "I ain't goin' to sleep in a pair of blankets that forty smelly bohunks has wrapped themselves in. What kind of a joint you brought us to, Jack?"

"What I want to tell you fellers," said Gillis, ignoring 'Crazy' Jack's remarks, "is this: I want you to stay all summer. None of this running to town to get your teeth fixed, or a new suit, see the ball game, or to meet your sister who's comin' out from the East, and all that old bunk. We got more orders—"

"Can that chatter," interrupted 'Fighting' Jack with a wide grin. "We're all goin' to town on Dominion Day, ain't we, boys?"

"You bet!" they roared as one.

Gillis shrugged his shoulders resignedly. "Thought you fellers was gettin' old enough to have a little sense," he said.

"Too much kick in us yet, Jack," demurred Blackie.

"Where is this door-mec-tory, Jack?" asked Hoop-la.

Gillis pointed to the long building, and the boisterous crowd moved noisily up the hill. The men dropped their packs to the ground outside the door, and, shouldering each other, peered in. The long rows of white beds stood immaculate against the walls, and two white-coated funkeys were sweeping the glossy varnished floor.

"This ain't the right place," growled Hoop-la, "this is the hospital. They must expect to kill about a hundred men every day. Hi! Jack! Come here. Where's the bunk-room?" he asked as Gillis approached.

"That's it."

"That!"
"Sure."

"Say! what you givin' us? I wouldn't dare sit down on one of them beds; 'fraid of dirty'n it."

The others gathered round.

"Jack, can we put up a log shack for ourselves?" asked Blackie.

"You sure can," responded Gillis tolerantly.

"All right, we'll sleep in this morgue 'till we get a decent place," said Blackie.

He poked his head in the door just as Andy, clad in white coat, entered by the rear.

"Say, nurse," shouted Blackie, "get ready for twenty-two cases of delirium tremens!"

"That's easy," was Andy's quick retort; "I've 'ad more than that by myself." His eyebrows lifted in quick surprise as he saw the brilliant shirt. "When does the blinkin' circus start?" he grinned.

That evening in their explorations Blackie and Hoop-la found the log shack on the lake-shore.

"Say, Jack, can me and Hoop-la have that cabin down there?"

"You be you can, Blackie. You and Hoop-la can have anythin' round here," replied Gillis heartily.

Blackie had turned to go, but on hearing this broad statement he stopped quickly. "Say, Jack, me and Hoop-la came away from Vancouver owin' a little miney—an' I promised to send—"

"Ye've got me when the gittin' is good," interrupted Gillis. "How much do you want?"

"Let me see," reflected Blackie, "I owe for my room in town; and I owe at Old Joe's and—an—"

"How much? Spit it out, I can stand the shock," commanded Gillis.

"Bout a hundred, Jack."

"Whew! whistled Gillis as he reached for his purse.

With Donald's assistance the hundred dollars was found and Blackie ran joyously down the hill.

"Little Devil!" smiled Gillis as he gazed after him. "Good-hearted a feller as ever lived," he added feelingly, "but he can't take one drink without goin' crazy."

The "redshirts" had been up in the woods looking over the logging operations, and they now came swinging down the hill, their bright shirts flashing in the sun. They were loggers, "every inch of them," as Gillis said.

CHAPTER XII.

Andy's study of nature proved to be no idle whim, and Gillis had long since ceased teasing him. All his leisure moments were spent in scouring the hills and meadows for specimens, and regularly every Sunday afternoon he ascended the hill to Wainwright's cabin with his collection for the learned Englishman's inspection.

On this afternoon, Wainwright, being in one of his solitary moods, had wandered up the mountain, and Andy found Connie busily engaged in spading the earth in search of worms, which she tossed to the swarm of birds that hopped on the ground and filled the air about her.

Scolding the bold camp-robbers that ventured dangerously near the shovel blade, she scattered the soil then laughed joyously as the birds with a great flutter of wings pounced on the fat worms.

Andy threw himself luxuriously on the green sward. This beautiful spot was a diversion from the hot kitchen, a veritable haven of rest. The gentle murmur of the bees among the flowers, the soft, subdued twittering of the birds, the rustle of the leaves, and the laughing of the water, all combined to make one sweet monotone of sound that lulled him into drowsiness.

Connie sat down near him, the birds all about her.

"Ow do you get them so tame, Connie?"

"They know that I love them," she replied simply.

"I can't get anything but the camp-robbers to come near me," said Andy.

"It takes time and patience, Andy. As soon as the birds are assured that you mean them no harm, they are eager to be your friends. You'll remember, Dad told you that without plants man could not live," she went on. "It is equally true that if all the birds should perish, man would soon follow. And, still more wonderful, if we had no insects man could not survive."

Andy came to a sitting posture. "Do you mean to say that we should die if we 'ad no insects?" he asked incredulously.

"Surely, Andy, you haven't forgotten what Dad told you last Sunday about insects carrying the pollen from flower to flower," reproved Connie.

"I 'ave it now!" cried Andy, after a few moments of reflection. "If we 'ad no insects to carry the pollen the plants couldn't live. And if the birds were all gone ther'd be so many insects that they'd eat up every blinkin' thing the farmers raised, and we'd starve to death."

Connie nodded.

"Strike me 'andsome if ain't wonderful!" said Andy in an awed voice.

Connie explained very simply to Andy the benefits derived by mankind from the various birds. Her discourse proved so interesting to him that he paid little heed to the time until the sun, disappearing behind the trees, warned him that it was time to return to his duties. Regretfully he arose and turned to the trail, Connie walking by his side. A goldfinch, rich in his summer plumage of bright yellow, black and white, hung swaying like a dainty sprite on a slender stem near the path. From its bulging little throat came a rippling, bubbling song like a miniature torrent of ecstasy.

"Dear, dear, dearie," he called sweetly.

"Oh, you darling!" cried Connie as she clasped her hands in rapture. "I've been trying to find their nest for several days, Andy, but the little dears have hidden it too well."

She made soft clucking sounds as she moved nearer to the beautiful bird. The goldfinch fluttered close to her side to perch like a yellow flower on the top of a tall thistle, perked its pretty head and looked up at her with bright shining eyes.

"Dear, dear, dearie," it sang again, then flew with characteristic wavy motion to a clump of willows, twittering sweetly as if calling Connie to follow.

"I 'ave to 'urry 'ome," said Andy as he looked at his watch. He glanced back at a turn in the trail to see Connie pressing the willows gently aside in her search for the goldfinch's nest.

"Strike me pink! but she is a wonderful girl," soliloquized Andy. "The 'andsomest and the brainiest kid I ever saw in me life. If I was thirty years younger, two feet 'igher, and 'arf decent to look at, I'd fall 'ead over 'eels in love with 'er."

He smiled broadly at these ridiculous reflections, but there was a tender light in his bright blue eyes. A swarthy foreign labourer, moving aimlessly up the trail, merely grunted in reply to Andy's cheerful salutation.

"One of Gillis's beloved bohunks," chuckled Andy.

A moment later he stopped suddenly. Connie was up there alone. For a short interval he hesitated, then resumed his downward journey. "She'd shoot 'is blinkin' 'ead off if 'e tried to 'arm 'er," he decided.

Just then he heard Connie's voice raised in a quick cry of anger. Andy jumped as though subjected to a galvanic shock. He turned in mid-air and before he struck the ground his short legs were going through the motion of running. The picture of Connie struggling in the arms of the burly foreigner made him fairly fly.

"I'm coming, Connie!" he shouted as he tore up the hill.

Donald and Gillis, sitting near the bluff enjoying a smoke came to their feet as they heard a faint shout from above. For an interval they listened intently, but hearing no further sound they resumed their seats. Andy slackened his pace as he came to the clearing and saw that Connie was unharmed. She was standing near the labourer with her head bowed over an object held in her hand.

"What's wrong, Connie?" panted Andy.

"Andy, look!" she choked, "it's the mother bird. I had just found her nest—here it is." She parted the bushes to disclose a compact, cosy, cup-like structure of fine grass and moss placed in a crotch of the tree. In the centre lay four downy fledglings whose tiny mouths gaped wide to receive the expected bit of food from the mother's bill. "Oh, Andy, if she dies the little ones won't live," said Connie in a voice filled with pity.

Planes Popular With Women

Of those who fly in the great passenger aeroplanes that link up Croydon aerodrome with continental capitals, at least 60 per cent. are women, figures published show. Some machines leave with only women as passengers, taking many to Paris for shopping tours. Planes are especially popular with honeymoon couples.
